

Coach Stuart Sacks Resume

- Teaching Experience
  - Mid 80's to Mid 90's - high school chemistry teacher in suburban Philly
  - Mid 80's to Mid 90's - day camp counselor ( 7 year olds ) & camp administrator (Sesame/Rockwood day camp)
  - Mid 90's to 2001 - high school chemistry teacher in Fairfax County
- Fencing Coaching Experience
  - 2006 to Present - Opened Rockville Fencing Academy (RFA)
    - Head Coach
      - Coach group beginning and recreational classes
      - Coach advanced competitive group classes and private lessons
        - RFA students have won medals at local, regional, and national level events, including Don Davis' gold medals in men's veteran 40 foil at USFA Nationals
      - RFA has the best youth and adult recreational foil program in the Capitol Division
      - RFA has the strongest competitive foil fencing in the DC area
  - 2001 to 2005 - Full-time foil coach at Virginia Academy of Fencing
    - Coached students of all age ranges
    - Took over the competitive foil program in 2002
      - 2003 to 2005 - 72% of all foil qualifiers from the Virginia divisional level (for national events) came out of this program
      - Produced medal winners in local, state & national level competitions, including placing a student in the Veteran 60 women's world team
  - Mid 90's to 2001 - Part-time coach at Virginia Academy of Fencing (VAF)
    - Developed youth program
    - Developed adult recreational program
    - Helped VAF grow from a small part-time club to a full-time club with a large permanent facility
- Mid '80s to late 90's - Established & ran fencing program for kids at Sesame/Rockwood day camp in suburban Philly
- Mid '80s to mid 90's - Coached adults at Phoenixville Fencing Club and Abington Adult Night School
- 1980 - 1989 - Ursinus College Fencing Club Team founding member, president and then coach; led the team to an 8 year unbeaten streak